

“The first thing Mouse felt was love, as he lay in the warmth of his mother’s fur.”

“Suddenly, Bear was there!”

A gentle, sensitive book that tackles the difficult, big things in life.

Told with feeling, about feelings this is a simple, subtle story of a little mouse’s journey, his fears and the eventual comfort he finds.

A gentle and sensitive book which is ideal for any child coping with the bigger, scarier things in life.
