

TRUE OR FALSE

Dissecting the truth behind famous stories, myths and legends.

REAL LIFE
Vampire Bats

Vlad the Impaler:
The inspiration for Bram Stokers
'Dracula'

From Robin Hood and Dracula, to the lost city of Atlanta and the hanging Gardens of Babylon, to Dragons and Ogres. Myths, legends and stories have always played a big part in cultures around the world, and most of them were inspired by real places, people and animals.

True or False collects tales from across the globe and attempts to dissect them; helping the reader to distinguish fact from fiction to learn the truth behind some of the most famous stories in history.

Written by: Collaborate Agency

Illustrated by: Laura Tolton

Selling Points:

- Touching on cultures from around the world.
- Moody and magical illustrations.
- Series potential.

Specification:

Size and extent negotiable.